MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST BYLAWS

Article I

PURPOSE AND DEFINITIONS

1. The purpose of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ as stated in its charter (1799) is “diffusing the knowledge of the Gospel of Jesus Christ ... and in concert with other ecclesiastical bodies for the general increase of Christian union and spiritual efficiency and the advancement of Christ’s Kingdom on earth.”
2. The local church is the basic unit of the life and organization of the United Church of Christ. It is autonomous and has the power of self-determination in all matters.
3. An Association is composed of all local churches in a geographical section of the Conference, of all ordained ministers holding standing therein, of all commissioned ministers of that Association, and of those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in that Association.

An Association may include Congregational Christian churches which are not part of the United Church of Christ, yet are in voluntary fellowship with and are recognized by the Association.

4. The name of this corporation is the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, herein referred to as the “Conference.” The Conference is that body of the United Church of Christ which is composed of all local churches in a geographical area, all ordained ministers holding standing in its Associations, all commissioned ministers in its Associations, and those licensed ministers who have been granted voting membership in its Associations.

It joins with other Conferences and agencies of the United Church of Christ for the advancement of God’s work in this world.

5. An Area is established by the Board of Directors and is composed of an Association or Associations informally grouped together for the convenience of the Conference.

Article II

DENOMINATIONAL BASIS

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

Article III

DOCTRINAL BASIS

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our forebears confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

MINUTES OF THE 204TH ANNUAL MEETING
OF THE
MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST
June 6-7, 2003
South Hadley, MA

The 204th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ was called to order at 2:00 PM on Friday, June 6, 2003 in Chapin Auditorium, Woolley Hall, at Mount Holyoke College by the Rev. Mr. Daniel Smith, Moderator. The theme of the Meeting was "Widening the Welcome: Joining Generations". Mr. Smith welcomed delegates and visitors and reminded them that they are the church and the representatives of the 429 local congregations. He spoke of the fact that the theme for the meeting was derived from The Vision for Renewal and Growth. Delegates would listen to the young adults of the church over the two-day meeting. Mr. Smith led the plenary in prayer.

The Moderator announced the appointment of the Business Committee in accordance with the Bylaws of the Conference: Mr. Larry Atkins, Ms. Carole Duhamel, Ms. Margery Eramo, Ms. Nancy Lawrence, Mr. Wim Nijenberg, Ms. Mary Alice Stahleker, Mr. John Statom and Ms. Bonnie Fleming, whom he introduced as Vice Moderator.

He then introduced Ms. Mary Alice Stahleker, Chair of the Credentials Committee. Ms. Stahleker appointed the Rev. Mr. Tom Clough and Ms. Joan Vander Vliet to that committee. Ms. Stahleker reported for the Credentials Committee pre-registration for this Annual Meeting of 388 lay delegates, 245 UCC clergy, 9 ex officio, 12 commissioned or licensed ministers and 131 visitors and others for a total of 785 people.

As there were more than 200 delegates in attendance, the Moderator declared a quorum and the meeting officially in session. Mr. Smith then appointed the Rev. Mr. Dale Hempen as Head Teller and the Rev. Mr. Robert Fenby as Head Usher.

Ms. Stahleker was recalled to move that the following people be granted status as honorary delegates with voice but not vote: Pastor Esaul Muñoz (Pentecostal Church of Chile), The Rev. Ms. Jill Wiley (Massachusetts Council of Churches), Mr. Alexendar Kern (Andover Newton Theological School), The Rev. Mr. Peter Southwell-Sander (the Conference Amistad to Boston Committee); and new church start pastors the Revs. Matthew and Elizabeth Myer Boulton (Hope Church, Roslindale), the Rev. Cesar and Ms. Lisa de Paz (Hispanic Community Church of Boston), the Rev. Chung-Soon Lee (Senuri Korean United Church of Christ, Belmont), and the Rev. Kyoowan Yi (Han Chan Korean Church, Brighton). The motion carried.

Ms. Stahleker then recognized leaders in Conference who have standing through our Associations and are therefore voting members of Annual Meeting: the Rev. Ms. Andrea Avvazian (Mt. Holyoke College), The Rev. Mr. Robert Bachelder (Worcester Area Mission Society), The Rev. Ms. June Cooper (Boston City Missionary Society), the Rev. Mr. William Fleming (Seafarer's Friend), and the Rev. Dr. Donald Wells (Massachusetts Bible Society).

The Moderator introduced Mr. Richard Osterberg, Parliamentarian; Mr. Willie Sordillo, recorder; and Ms. Marion Butland, interpreter for the hearing impaired. Ms. Stahleker and Ms. Eramo were appointed to act as time-keepers during plenary sessions. The Moderator also introduced keynote speakers and workshop leaders Matt and Liz Myer Boulton from Hope Community Church in Roslindale.

The Moderator reported that the Annual Meeting Planning Committee and Board of Directors recommended the adoption of the proposed Standing Rules as printed in the Advance Reports. He stated that changes from the 203rd Annual Meeting Standing Rules had been proposed as a result of issues raised about resolutions passed at that meeting. Ms. Linda Bixby, Chair of the Planning Committee, moved that the 204th Annual Meeting adopt the Standing Rules as proposed. The motion carried.

Ms. Bixby next moved that the Annual Meeting adopt the proposed Order of Time and Events listed on Goldenrod I. The motion carried.

The moderator reminded the delegates that amendments to proposed resolutions of more than 35 words must be presented to the Business Committee by 9:30 PM of this day.

The Moderator introduced Pastor Esaul Muñoz of the Pentecostal Church of Chile, and The Rev. Ross Varney as his translator. Pastor Esaul brought greetings from the directorate and general assembly of pastors of the Pentecostal Church of Chile.

Mr. Smith introduced the following representatives to national boards: Ms. Jennifer Craig, Executive Council of the Board of Directors; The Rev. Ms. Ruth Brandon, Board of Directors of Wider Church Ministries; Ms. VilmaThompson, Board of Directors of Justice and Witness Ministries; The Rev. Ms. Esther Rendon-Thompson, Board of Directors of Local Church Ministries. Mr. Smith indicated that Ms. Rendon-Thompson's term ends at the end of General Synod 24 and that the nominee to replace her is Ms. Annie Lynn Hall.

The Moderator called attention to the printed reports of the Treasurer and Secretary. There are currently 429 churches with 96,154 members and 856 ordained UCC clergy with standing in our 11 Associations. 100 students are currently In Care.

The Moderator called on Dr. Harrison Campbell, Treasurer, to give his updated report. Dr. Campbell stated that the Conference had weathered 2002 well. In 2002, Fellowship Dues were raised and salaries were raised for Conference staff. A 28.5% increase in Fellowship Dues was received and there was a 12.5 % rise in income from Basic Support and Fellowship Dues combined over 2001. However, giving fell short of the target by $70,000 and the final outcome was a deficit of $33,631. In light of this shortfall, the Board revised expectations for 2003. Salaries and wages were frozen at 2002 levels and $50,000 was cut from the program expense budget. The 2004 budget proposed in the Advance Reports is conservative with regard to income projections and spending, but shows a deficit of $24,000. The General Operating Fund should be able to absorb the deficit.

Mr. John Thompson, Chair of the Nominating Committee, was called upon to give a report of that committee's work. He stated that there were three additions to the slate of nominees presented on Pink I: Commission on Communication class of 2006, Mr. Thomas Ryan; Commission on Stewardship, Class of 2006, Mr. Steven Clark; Commission on Leadership Development, Class of 2006, Ms. Virginia Durgin. There are 63 people nominated for positions on commissions, boards, planning committees, and as delegates to General Synod. Nominations of officers and members of the Nominating Committee are made by the Board of Directors. The Moderator called for nominations from the floor and none were heard.

The Moderator stated that the Business Committee had heard from delegates questions regarding the role of the Annual Meeting and its delegates and the role of the Minister and President and the degree to which she can or cannot speak for the churches. The Business Committee invited the Rev. Dr. Nancy Taylor to speak about her vision of the resolution process, and the roles of Annual Meeting and the Minister and President in how we speak together prophetically. Dr. Taylor was called to the podium to address the delegates on these matters.

Dr. Taylor said that prophetic action and speech are dangerous actions that carry us into disputed territory. She emphasized that when she speaks publicly, either as directed by a resolution passed at Annual Meeting, such as the Resolution Concerning our Government's Response to the Attacks of 9/11/01, or through her own initiative as a prophetic voice, she does not speak for the churches, but to them and others. She pointed out that she is specifically called to be the prophetic voice of the Conference to the churches and the wider world by the terms of her call. She referred to Articles 17 and 19 of the United Church of Christ Constitution, which compel each setting of the church to be mutually responsible to the others with whom they are in covenant and directs local churches to listen to the wider voice of the church and hold it in highest regard, even when in disagreement. She spoke of the need to enter disputed territory as she did in response to the Catholic Bishop's proclamation against same sex unions. It was important that the United Church of Christ voice be heard. Delegates responded to Dr. Taylor's presentation with a standing ovation.

Mr. Larry Atkins, Chair of the Board of Directors was called on by the Moderator to give his report. Mr. Atkins asked those present to recall their baptisms and confirmations and stated that baptism and call are the same thing. He spoke of the Board as a baptism and a calling. Mr. Atkins introduced the Board and cited three things it has worked on during the past year: 1) Attempting to sell some of the Conference's Framingham property as directed by the delegates to Annual Meeting last year. This sale has not occurred due to sewer and zoning issues. However, the Conference was given a gift that will allow the renovation of Edwards House. Mr. Alan Butler, Moderator and Ms. Cynthia Keeton of Central Congregational Church of Newton were introduced and thanked for their church's gift of nearly $600,000 as a legacy from the closing of their church; 2) New Churches were a priority: The Hispanic Community Church in Jamaica Plain and Hope Church in Roslindale; 3) The Board of Directors has authorized the hosting of the Freedom Schooner Amistad when it visits Boston this coming October. This project emphasizes baptism and call as it is partly focused on the abolitionist movement in which our Congregational forbears played a large role.

Mr. Ed Hoyt, the Acting Associate Conference Minister for Stewardship and Financial Development, was introduced by the Moderator to recognize churches with the highest per capita combined total of OCWM and Fellowship Dues giving in each Association.

The Moderator then introduced the Rev. Stan Duncan to report on last year's Resolution Supporting the People in, and a UCC Delegation to, Colombia, South America. He reported that during the course of an inspiring visit the delegation met with many different groups, but that the church visits changed their lives. A new trip is being planned, and all are invited to go and have their eyes opened and lives changed.

The Vice Moderator gave notes on choices and locations of hearings related to this year's proposed resolutions and made several announcements related to procedures and the facility. She declared the plenary in recess until 6:45 PM.

The Vice Moderator reconvened the meeting at 6:45 PM and moderated a session of Speakouts. Then she introduced the Rev. Mathew Myer Boulton, Assistant Professor of Worship and Preaching at Andover Newton Theological School, and the Rev. Elizabeth Myer Boulton, Senior Pastor at Hope Church, who jointly led worship, intertwined with plenary business at this session. Mr. Myer Boulton invited delegates to a time of worship with the collective reading of a Psalm and a song.

The Rev. Ann Adams followed and gave a presentation on Our Church's Wider Mission (OCWM) Basic Support. Using an extended metaphor of The Big Dig, she spoke of the need for churches to support OCWM as a means of addressing needs that could not be addressed in any other way. OCWM giving provides the infrastructure that allows money to go where the local churches cannot.

The Rev. Wendy Vander Hart and Mr. John Pearson next gave a presentation on the proposed 2004 budget. Emphasizing that "a budget is a tool for mission and ministry", they strove to put a human face to the numbers presented in the Advance Reports. Ms. Liz Mahoney and the Rev. Mr. John Hudson were invited to tell their stories and Ms. Vander Hart asked everyone present to write down a time when they or their church received or gave help from or to the wider church.

The proposed budget indicated five main sources of income to the Conference. Of these, three are small, contributing only 12% of the budget. Most income is in the form of OCWM and Fellowship Dues from local churches. Two of the upcoming budget votes pertain to OCWM. The income goal is based on an increase of 1% to 6% over 2003 giving. The Board of Directors estimate that the overall Basic Support in 2003 will remain level with 2002; but it is assumed that the national economy will improve in 2004. Therefore, the Board proposed a 1% level of increase in Basic Support for 2004 with an overall goal range of 1% to 6% to challenge churches who can afford to give more.

Minutes

The second proposal recommends that 40% of OCWM Basic Support will remain in the Conference, which reflects no change since 2001.

The Dues rate in 2003 is $12.65 per member. The current proposal is to increase this to $12.95 per member.

The final proposal set income for 2004 at $2,240,800 expenses at $2,262,600, showing a deficit of $21,800. Despite the deficit, further cuts in the budget would affect personnel or core programs and contribute to a downward spiral of revenue over the next few years. The Board assumed that the current economic climate is temporary and that the Conference will be able to meet the proposed budget, possibly even exceeding projections. The deficit is less than 1% of the total budget.

Following a period of worship led by the Myer Boultons, the Rev. Ms. Molly Phinney Baskette and the Rev. Mr. Paul Nickerson were asked by the Moderator to introduce new church starts. These include Lao United Church of Christ in Lowell, Iglesia Hispana Unida in Worcester; Han Chan Korean Church, which is co-sponsored by the Presbyterian church, located at the Brighton Evangelical Congregational Church, UCC; Hope Church in Roslindale, a joint church start through the UCC and the Disciples of Christ; Senuri Korean United Church of Christ, whose pastor serves the Anglo congregation and the Korean church in Waverly; and a project to explore the potential for a new church start to be housed in South Congregational Church in Lawrence. Other sites have been researched but the Conference lacks the funding to start more churches. The existing new church starts need sustaining support from the whole United Church of Christ, especially the churches in the areas where they are located. Their needs include administrative, technical, and financial support.

The Moderator next called for reports on the afternoon hearings on proposed resolutions.

The Moderator then introduced the Pastoral Excellence Program and called on Ms. Susan Dickerman, Associate Conference Minister for Leadership Development. Ms. Dickerman stated that the proposal for the $1.5 million Lilly Endowment grant which funds the program was based on The Vision for Renewal and Growth, and the program is a means of implementing the Vision. Ms. Dickerman introduced Ms. Ann Plumley, the Rev. Ms. Christina Braudaway-Bauman, and the Rev. Mr. Larry Peers, the members of the Pastoral Excellence Team. She then presented the questions guiding the work of the team: 1) What constitutes Pastoral Excellence? 2) What opportunities or experiences are most helpful? and 3) What role can the Massachusetts Conference play? She spoke of the needs and actions of pastors who are excellent, imaginative and effective. The 3-5 year program will follow the seasons of ministry, beginning with the In Care process and training for newly ordained pastors, and including assistance for all pastors in such areas as professional development, prevention of clergy misconduct, and strengthening covenantal relationships. The program seeks to develop ongoing reflection and renewal. The work began in May, and already there are results to report: The Rev. Nancy Elder Wilfred has developed a Spiritual Directory Catalog which is now available to all pastors; Response Team training has already taken place; with guidance from the Rev. Erv Bode and the Rev. Bill Abernethy, 20 pastoral leaders are working on a book, Making Good Pastors Better; workshops for graduating seminarians as they transition to pastoral ministry will be offered at Andover Newton Theological School and other places; other clergy workshops will provide an opportunity for pastors to reflect on their ministry during the past year. The dialogue continues with our Conference Ministers, staff, Associations, clergy, and churches.

Dr. Taylor was called on to welcome new staff and to introduce staff members. She also thanked Mr. Rufus Cushman for his volunteer work in Meredith Hutchison's absence.

Mr. Myer Boulton led a Bible reading and provided a moving sermon on the topic: "What is the essence of being the church?" based on the story of the Prodigal Son.

The Moderator then introduced Mr. Alex Kern from recruitment at Andover Newton Theological School, who thanked the Conference for support of two seminaries. He introduced the Vice President for Advancement at Bangor Seminary, Ms. Becky Wright, to talk about the "Bangor Plan" for undergraduates to earn a Master of Divinity degree in five years.

The Moderator next introduced the Rev. Dr. Peter Wells, Associate Conference Minister in the Western Area to talk about Just Peace theology and what it means to be a Just Peace Conference. Mr. Wells spoke of three dominant historic Christian responses to war: pacifism, Just War Theory (war as the lesser of two evils), and Crusades or Holy Wars. He spoke of past United Church of Christ General Minister and President Robert Moss' 1971 formulation of Just Peace theology, a paradigm placing the United Church of Christ in opposition to war and nuclear deterrence. He defined Just Peace as Shalom, justice, friendship, and security from violence and emphasized that the search for peace must be accompanied by the search for justice. Just Peace theory calls on the church to be a peacemaking community. Mr. Wells stated that the church must call the state to task when it strays. Just Peace is an ecclesiology, a way of being church.

The Vice Moderator announced events which would take place later in the evening, made announcements, and recessed the meeting until 8:30 AM on Saturday. Mr. Myer Boulton offered a benediction.

Minutes

Saturday, June 7, 2003

The session was called to order by the Vice Moderator at 8:30 AM. Ms. Fleming opened with a prayer and a session of Speakouts followed.

The moderator announced the death of The Rev. Mr. Phillip Ward from Chicopee and The Rev. Mr. Arnold Kenseth of Amherst this past week, as well as recognizing Parliamentarian Mr. Richard Osterberg's birthday.

The moderator then introduced the Minister and President, who presented her report on the State of the Conference. The Rev. Dr. Nancy Taylor told the story of Myron Eells in the Idaho Territories in 1872 at the age of 29 and made an analogy to what was happening at this Annual Meeting. She spoke of the importance of youth and made reference to The Vision for Renewal and Growth. She spoke of the Neighborhood Conversations on Race: A Talk Worth Having, and the need to address issues of race. She also reminded delegates of the extraordinary gift of the Lilly Grant that will allow the Conference to move forward in economically difficult times. She spoke of the effects of 9/11 in the country; it has been a difficult time for churches and clergy and a time in which pastoral care is especially needed. She spoke of ministries of reconciliation and of Christians as world citizens. She referred to the fallout of the scandal in the Catholic Church and the litigious climate. She asked local churches to implement safe church policies to protect all parties.

Dr. Taylor introduced the new UCC position of Nationwide Special Council to protect the church's rights to govern itself. She recognized Mr. Richard Osterberg for his many years of service as an attorney and parliamentarian for the Conference. Dr. Taylor reaffirmed the role of the Minister and President as a prophetic voice to speak to the churches and the media. She thanked the delegates for the affirmation of her ministry and said it was an affirmation of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ in reclaiming a public role. She concluded by referring to Jesus as a young adult from whose teaching even the wisest would learn, and through whom we know God.

The Rev. Ms. Karen Fritz was called by the moderator to report on last year's Resolution to End Homelessness in Massachusetts. She emphasized the need to continue to let elected officials know that there is still much to be done to end homelessness. Ms. Fritz introduced Mr. Len Dalton, who said that though the foundation has been built, next steps must be taken to end homelessness. A conference at Plymouth Church in Framingham is planned for October where strategies will be planned and implemented. Ms. Fritz announced that a petition was being circulated to support a feasibility study for one-stop applications, and to reject rent increase in public housing.

The Moderator then called on The Rev. Ms. Carrie Bail, proposer of the Earth Charter Resolution. Ms. Bail moved the passage of the resolution as proposed and, after it was seconded, made a short presentation in support of it. No one spoke in opposition to the resolution. It was voted that:

RESOLUTION ON ENDORS-     The 204th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ, adopts a
ING THE EARTH CHARTER     Resolution to Invite Congregations to Endorse the Earth Charter (Appendix A).
03-AM-01

The Moderator called upon The Rev. Mr. Raymond Patch to present the Haystack Awards. Ms. Melissa Jenkins, who had just graduated from North Reading High School, received this year's award for her ministry of organizing a grass roots project of direct service to people in Nicaragua. Ms. Jenkins collected and delivered medical supplies and other needed items over a four-year period. Mr. Patch called on her to take others with her on her journey as she responds to her call. Mr. Patch introduced Ms. Jenkins, who spoke about her work.

The Moderator next introduced a conversation between young adult leaders moderated by The Rev. Mr. Matthew Myer Boulton. Participating were The Rev. Ms. Molly Phinney Baskette, Mr. Greg Morisse, Mr. Ben Davis and The Rev. Ms. Katrina Wuensch. A lively discussion ensued relating to how churches can reach out to youth and young adults and why we have been failing to reach this population. Ms. Baskette spoke of the ministry seeming to be the only funnel into the church for young adults. Ms. Wuensch and Mr. Morisse stated that younger people often don't get involved because there is too much emphasis on families and parenting. Mr. Davis spoke of a lack of attention to young people's needs after confirmation. It was felt crucial that there be young clergy who can serve as role models for other young people, and that churches try to be more authentically who they are rather than trying to be all things to all people. The needs to take the church out of the sanctuary, revitalize worship and speak prophetically were expressed. The United Church of Christ needs to continue to ask young people what they have to say and to distinguish itself from conservative Christianity.

The Moderator then called on the Rev. Mr. Bert Marshall to come forward to move and speak for the proposed Resolution Concerning a Christian Response to War as amended in yesterday's hearing. It was moved, seconded and voted that:

RESOLUTION CONCERNING     The 204th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ, adopts a
A CHRISTIAN RESPONSE     Resolution Concerning a Christian Response to War (Appendix B).
TO WAR
03-AM-02

The Moderator then called Mr. John Thompson who moved the slate of nominations as appended in yesterday's plenary session. Nominations were closed by a vote and the Moderator authorized the recorder to case a single ballot for the election of executive officers, officers, members of the Board of Directors, Commissions and Committees.

The Moderator thanked the Rev. Ms. Katrina Clinton for the beautiful banners that decorated the stage.

The Rev. Mr. Malcolm Bertram was recognized from the floor. He moved that Dr. Taylor's address to the plenary on the role of the prophetic voice, entitled A Statement and Teaching Moment, be circulated to all settings and leaders of the United Church of Christ. The motion was seconded and voted unanimously.

Roberts, the Rev. Mr. Taylor E. Roth, The Rev. Mr. Robert B. Starbuck, The Rev. Mr. Donald E. Tatro, and The Rev. Mr. John H. Wild. #### Resolution to Invited Congregations to Endorse the Earth Charter

Christians seek to respect the words of Psalm 24, “the earth is the Lord’s and the fullness thereof.” Around the globe, individuals and organizations have crafted the Earth Charter, an attempt to improve the worldwide situation in its environmental, social, and economic aspects. The Charter calls upon us to respect the earth and life in all its diversity. “The spirit of human solidarity and kinship with all life is strengthened when we live with reverence for the mystery of being, gratitude for the gift of life, and humility regarding the human place in nature.”

WHEREAS a global, grassroots effort has drafted the Charter; and

WHEREAS the January 2003 Annual Meeting of the First Congregational Church of Williamstown unanimously voted to endorse the Charter; and

WHEREAS the same meeting also voted unanimously to extend an invitation to other U.C.C. Massachusetts congregations to do likewise; and

WHEREAS the more individuals and organizations that signify a commitment to the spirit and aims of the Charter, the more likely it will influence decisions and actions in future years through study, endorsement, and application to immediate issues and long-term church planning; and

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 204th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ invite all churches in the Conference to study and to consider endorsing the Earth Charter.

Resolution Concerning A Christian Response to War

WHEREAS the 204th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ takes note of the large number of current and impending violent conflicts throughout God’s world, and

WHEREAS, as disciples of the Prince of Peace and as Christians who have been called to live out a vocation of reconciliation, we acknowledge with humility our duty to pray for, seek out, advocate and work for those things which make for peace, and

WHEREAS Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. aptly asserted that “The past is prophetic in that it asserts loudly that wars are poor chisels for carving out peaceful tomorrows. One day we must come to see that peace is not a merely distant goal that we seek, but a means by which we arrive at that goal” (attributed), and

WHEREAS Isaiah prophesized “and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war anymore.” (Isaiah 2:4)

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the 204th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ

1. recommits as Christians to working for and promoting the peaceful resolution of all violent conflicts, in our own nation and worldwide
2. believes that all peaceful possibilities and options for resolution of conflicts should be exhausted before resorting to war

WHEREAS, In Leviticus Chap. 25, we as Christians are called to care for the land and to respond as faithful stewards by taking personal and collective actions to defend and heal the earth; and

WHEREAS, Asthma, developmental disabilities, childhood and adult cancer rates and other chronic disease and disorders have reached epidemic proportions in the U.S. as toxic chemicals have proliferated in our air, water and land (The Consensus Statement of the Collaborative on Health and the Environment, signed by hundreds of health experts and organizations, states "Scientific evidence increasingly indicates a relationship between a range of environmental factors and these diseases and conditions."); and

WHEREAS, Children are among the most vulnerable in our society, particularly to the effects of toxins present in our environment (The CHE collaborative states, "The developing human fetus appears to be uniquely at risk of harm from environmental toxicants, and such damage can be profound and permanent."); and

WHEREAS, Potential toxins were not usually tested for safety before use, the government usually takes action only after harm is proven and widespread, and certain levels of harm are accepted and allowed by government authorities, and citizen action is necessary to change government policies to better protect our health; and

WHEREAS, The Alliance for a Healthy Tomorrow is working tirelessly to correct fundamental flaws in government policy that are damaging our health and our environment, causing real suffering and loss; and,

WHEREAS, The national Justice and Witness Ministries of the United Church of Christ encourages local churches, Associations and Conferences to "engage in direct action for the integrity of creation";

BE IT THEREFORE RESOLVED, That the 204th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ:

- Requests that the Board of Directors join Alliance for a Healthy Tomorrow on behalf of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ as a member organization and requests that the Commission for Mission and Justice Ministries appoint a delegate/contact person to be a liaison to the Alliance Board of Directors as financing allows; and
- Encourages local churches and their members to become educated about toxic threats to health and the environment, and to consider participating in the Alliance for a Healthy Tomorrow as advocates for children, health, the environment, and environmental justice.

2004 Compensation Guidelines for MACUCC Clergy for use with Clergy Compensation Booklet available from the Commission on Leadership Development, MACUCC

The 204th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, concerned with the growth of its churches and the compensation of its ordained leaders, recommends that all congregations meet the goals as outlined in Guidelines for Clergy Compensation. The guidelines apply to all full-time pastors, associates and assistants, both settled and interim.

Because the pastor of a church is required by the Associations of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ to be a highly educated and trained professional, the salary and housing package for pastors should be congruent with the compensation of other similarly trained professionals in the community. The total compensation package could be considered at least equal to that of professionals requiring three or more years of post graduate training such as school superintendents, secondary and middle school principals, engineers and other professionals in administrative positions, showing consideration for years of service, special skills and training, and natural aptitude. The federal tax structure is unique for clergy, and the compensation package should be designed in such a way as to maximize the pastor's income.

The work schedules and compensation packages of local pastors should be healthy for the pastor and for the church. That would require a balance of time spent in the church's ministry and time spent with family and friends — a balance of work and recreation, a balance of exercising the body and the mind, a balance of care of others and care for self.

Some churches, because of their smaller membership and/or financial constraints, may be unable to provide an adequate compensation package for full time pastoral service. They are encouraged to meet with the Area Minister and/or Stewardship and Financial Planning Consultants from the Conference to review their situation. They may consider creative options, such as calling a part-time, bi-vocational pastor or sharing a pastor with another congregation in the area in order to combine resources to offer adequate compensation. A congregation should not expect a pastor to work full time for part-time compensation.

Be it resolved that the 204th Annual Meeting recommends:

1. Churches pay the minimum entry-level cash salary according to the following table for a full-time pastor;
2. Churches provide either
  - a. a PARSONAGE or
  - b. a CASH PACKAGE sufficient to allow the minister to buy, furnish and maintain a median-priced house in the church's community.
3. Full benefits and professional expenses be provided, as listed below; benefits and professional expenses are not to be considered part of the cash salary, but are part of the cost of having an ordained minister;
4. Churches already at or above the minimum and also fully providing all benefits and professional expenses as outlined in below give at least a cost of living increase and consider a merit increase also;
5. The work schedule of local pastors be a maximum average of 40-50 hours per week with no more than 3 evenings in a given week; in addition, pastors take at least 1½ days off per week.

CASH SALARY RANGES

The cash salary ranges do NOT include housing, benefits, professional or any other expenses. In calculating years of ordained experience, churches may wish to include other relevant life and work experience.

Number of Church Members	Years of Ordained Experience
	0 - 3	4 - 10	over 10
0 - 150	$25,882 - $38,306	$27,953 - $41,412	$30,024 - $44,517
150 - 300	$25,882 - $40,376	$29,506 - $43,741	$32,094 - $47,623
300 - 500	$25,882 - $42,447	$32,094 - $47,624	$37,270 - $54,870
500 - 1,000	$25,882 - $45,553	$35,200 - $52,282	$42,447 - $63,153
over 1,000	$25,882 - $46,588	$38,306 - $56,941	$47,623 - $70,918

HOUSING

Churches provide either:

- a. a PARSONAGE with a furnishings allowance, all utilities, and an equity development plan which will ensure the pastor has housing assets in retirement; or
- b. a CASH PACKAGE sufficient to allow the minister to buy, furnish and maintain a median-priced house in the church's community; the minimum cash package shall be no less than 1/100 per month of the value of a median-priced home in the community; ( for example: if a median-priced house in a community is $150,000, the church's minimum cash package for housing would be $1,500 per month, or $18,000 per annum)

BENEFITS AND PROFESSIONAL EXPENSES

A. SOCIAL SECURITY ALLOWANCE

Since clergy are treated as self-employed for social security purposes, pastors must pay the current 15.3% on the cash salary plus housing allowance or on cash salary plus the fair market rental value of the parsonage plus utilities. Therefore it is recommended that churches pay 7.65% of the pastor's salary plus housing allowance or, where a parsonage is provided, 7.65% of fair market rental value plus cost of utilities for social security. This is taxable income which must be reported on a clergy person's tax returns.

B. BENEFITS

1. annuity - minimum of 14% of base salary plus housing allowance (or minimum of 14% of 130% of base salary if parsonage is provided) paid quarterly to the UCC Pension Board <sup>1</sup>
  2. life insurance and disability benefit plan - disability income insurance and decreasing term life insurance through UCC program; cost is 1 1/2% of base salary plus housing allowance or, where a parsonage is provided, of 130% of base salary
  3. group life insurance - additional decreasing term life insurance available through the Pension Boards for $50 per year
  4. medical/dental insurance - available through the UCC Pension Boards
  5. holiday and vacation time - usual holidays (or compensation time) and 4 weeks vacation per year
  6. continuing education time
  7. sabbatical time and funds
  8. sick time
  9. maternity/paternity leave, including for adoption
- For more detail, see Clergy Compensation Booklet

C. PROFESSIONAL COSTS

Tax law allows deduction of business expenses on Schedule A only after the minister has spent more than 2% of family adjusted gross income on such expenses. THEREFORE it is important that a church establish an "Accountable Reimbursement Plan" which will reimburse or pay directly all costs which the pastor incurs for "doing business" for the church, so that the pastor is not paying income tax for church expenses. These should include but not be limited to:

1. auto reimbursement - for use of personal car at current IRS rate plus tolls and parking, or an automobile provided by the church
2. professional expenses - all expenses allowed by the IRS
3. continuing education allowance

For more detail see Clergy Compensation Booklet

For reference, the following is an illustration of what is needed to fund the POSITION of a pastor (salary, housing, AND benefits and professional expenses) for a minister with 12 years experience, receiving a mid-range salary, serving in a church with 150-300 members:

COMPENSATION:

salary	$39,859
housing allowance (for those not in a parsonage, $150,000 house)	18,000

BENEFITS:

annuity (salary + housing x 14%) <sup>1</sup>	8,100
life insurance and disability benefit plan (salary + housing x 1.5%)	868
group life insurance	50
medical/dental insurance (family plan)	11,028
social security offset (salary + housing x 7.65%) <sup>2</sup>	4,453

PROFESSIONAL COSTS

professional expenses	1,500
continuing education	750
auto reimbursement (14,000 miles/year @ $.36/mile)	5,040
total needed to fund the position of minister	$89,648

It is understood that some churches may not be able to meet these guidelines immediately, and may need instead to institute them over a period of 3-5 years. It will be important in these instances to project a cost of living increase for each year and to make the necessary projection of total dollars above where the compensation package is at present. Then simply divide by the number of years it will take to reach the goal, and increase by that figure the annual compensation package over the 3-5 year period.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT the 204TH Annual Meeting

- 1) Requests that the Board of Directors recommend that the Commission on Leadership Development include in its 2005 (and future) Compensation Guidelines for Clergy:
  - a) A recommendation that local churches thoroughly review on a yearly basis all aspects of its clergyperson(s)' salary and benefits package;
  - b) A salary grid comparison chart, with information collected from reporting churches.

Minutes

- 2) Asks that the Board of Directors recommend that the Commission on Leadership Development undertake a study of the impact of Massachusetts' spiraling housing prices upon the local church's ability to offer fair and just compensation packages and report the results of that study to the 205th Annual Meeting.
- <sup>1</sup> This is the standard formula recommended by the UCC Pension Boards for calculating the annual church contribution to a pastor's annuity. However, in some specific situations where a pastor's compensation package is heavily weighted toward a housing allowance, a tax accountant should be consulted to assure that the annuity payment does not exceed the maximum percent of taxable compensation allowed by the IRS for contribution to a 403(b) tax sheltered annuity.
- <sup>2</sup> This is taxable income which must be included with taxable wages on the W-2 form given to the pastor and reported on a clergyperson's tax returns.

MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL FUND

Professionally managed, socially responsible investment trusts with competitive returns.

The EQUITY FUND (First Trust) is managed by State Street Global Advisors using their socially responsible equity strategy to preserve capital while seeking appreciation through a diversified portfolio of securities in sound businesses. Its objectives are to exceed the total return of the S&P 500 Index with a lower risk profile. The investment process employs the strategies of macro analysis industry selection (top-down) and security analysis stock selection (bottom-up) to construct a trust portfolio from a socially screened universe of investment grade securities.

The FIXED INCOME FUND (Second Trust) is managed by Dwight Asset Management Company to preserve capital and provide a high level of current income through a diversified portfolio of investment grade fixed income securities.
